

Postgraduate training course for dentists working in developing countries

Responsible: Laura Strohmenger

Description: Problem-based learning courses in dental public health in collaboration with the University of Turin. The training program is based on the International guidelines, aiming to develop specific skills in the field of international cooperation, solidarity, public health and oral diseases epidemiology.

Expected outcome: Oral health. The capability to build up or improve the facilities dedicated to oral health care based on the population requests.

Funding source: COI - International Dental Cooperation and a non-governmental association (NGO) approved by the Foreign Affair Ministry.

Results: public health journal reports

Timeframe of the activity: 2 years starting from February 2011